

Educational materials developed through the Baltimore County History Labs Program, a partnership between Baltimore County Public Schools and the UMBC Center for History Education.

Did the Reality Match the Expectations for Kansas Homesteaders?

RS#09 Kansas Farmers: Document Analysis Worksheet

Directions: Use this sheet to organize the information from your Evidence packet. Be specific and detailed in your answers.

Text What information do we learn from the source?
Context What was going on during the time period the document was created and how might this influence the information we get from the source?
Subtext Who created the document? Why and for whom and how might this information impact the information we get from the source?

Describe the life of a Kansas farmer according to evidence found in this source?

Based on the context and subtext of the source, is there any reason to question the information from these sources?

Is there any evidence from this source that supports or challenges the advertisement poster? Explain.