

Guest Speaker:

Dr. Bruce Johnson

Founder and President
One Moon Scientific, Inc.

From Big Pharma to One Moon...

Come listen to Dr. Bruce Johnson tell his story of moving from a 15-year career as a research scientist for one of the world's largest pharmaceutical companies to founding his own company. Merging his love of science and computing, One Moon Scientific, Inc. focuses on rapidly developing applications for the analysis of scientific data. The company specializes in software that integrates signal processing, statistics, and pattern recognition tools to allow scientists to rapidly identify mechanisms of toxicity and function in new drug candidates.
