Financial Responsibility for F-1 Students

This form is not part of the application for admission; it is required supplementary information used for issuing your immigration documents. The International Education Services Office issues the immigration form I-20 that allows you to obtain an F-1 student visa. In order to issue you an I-20, we need you to show that you have adequate funding to support yourself proof of financial support from you, your sponsor or academic department.

NOTE: Please read carefully and complete all fields that apply as accurately as possible. An incomplete form will result in a delay in processing your I-20.

DEPENDENT INFORMATION

If you intend to have your spouse and children accompany you to the U.S., please submit a copy of their passport biographical page. This will be required to process their required immigration documents. A student can only bring their spouse and children on a dependent (F-2) visa.

SOURCES OF FUNDING

You are required to show that you have at least one year's worth of adequate funding to pay all the necessary expenses while at UMBC. If you have funding from UMBC via an assistantship or scholarship please include a copy of your award letter. If you are paying through other sources of funding please submit that information. Acceptable sources include checking and savings account bank statements. If the funding is in foreign currency, please have the foreign bank convert the amount to U.S. dollars.

Unacceptable sources include real estate holdings, stocks, bonds, salary verification letters, retirement funds, and life insurance policies.

If the source of funds belongs to anyone other than you, a signed letter of support must accompany the bank documents. The letter must include the name of the sponsor, the sponsor's relationship to you and a statement attesting that they expect to support all your expenses for the duration of your program.

It is recommended that you bring original copies of this document and any additional financial documentation to your visa appointment at the United States Consulate. Make copies of this form for your records.
