

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGY:

UMBC AT THE UNIVERSITIES AT SHADY GROVE

Our Reputation,
Your Backyard.

UMBC's Bachelor of Arts in Psychology Program at The Universities at Shady Grove (USG) offers students a welcoming, engaging environment in which to learn and grow. Students choose to major in psychology for many reasons. Some see the psychology major as the first step towards a career as a psychologist or a place to continue their studies in graduate school. Others choose psychology because it fits into their immediate occupational plans; majoring in psychology is a good way to start a career in social work as well as many other social service and public sector professions. Also, psychology is often a first step toward careers in advertising, business, civil service, personnel/human relations, public relations or any other field that includes extensive work with people. Many psychology majors go on to law or medical school.

Students regularly obtain internship and co-op education experiences through the Psychology Department and UMBC's Shriver Center. Similarly, a large number of students secure hands-on research experience by collaborating with faculty members.

Studying psychology at UMBC-Shady Grove is a very rewarding experience. The coursework is challenging, but the faculty's enthusiasm for the material results in an encouraging and personalized learning atmosphere. The innovative culture at The Universities at Shady Grove has allowed me to gain real-world experience in research and mental health. This is a place where your voice will be heard.

GUIDE TO SUCCESS: BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGY

STEP ONE: PLAN AHEAD

Plan early and plan often. Come to an information session as soon as you are considering UMBC at The Universities at Shady Grove so that we can help you decide which courses to take while you are still at community college. Register for an upcoming information session at www.umbc.edu/shadygrove.

Prerequisites for Admission:

- Introduction to Psychology (PY 102)
- English Composition (EN 102 or EN 109)

Recommended Coursework:

- Arts and Humanities: Three courses, at least two in the same area. For example, take two music classes and a philosophy class.
- Social Science: One 200-level Psychology course (either PY 215 or PY 221) plus another social science course - political science, sociology, history, or economics are all good choices.
- Mathematics: MA 110 will suffice, but MA 116 is a good idea. Statistics forms an excellent foundation for the work you'll do in your major.
- Science: Two, one with a lab, one without. This can be biology, chemistry, physics, nutrition or several others.
- Physical Education: Take two activity courses in physical education. There are certain exceptions to this, so check with an advisor.
- Language and Culture: You must meet the equivalent of the 201 level in a foreign language and take at least one other culture class. This requirement can be complicated, so see an advisor at UMBC to find out how you can fulfill this requirement.
