CURRENT CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

An exploration of advanced topics in music technology. The subject matter varies from semester to semester but may include surround recording techniques, sound design, audio electronics, sound for video and multimedia.

Prerequisites: MUSC 318.

PROPOSED CATALOG DESCRIPTION: no changes change in description

RATIONALE FOR CHANGE:

We would like more flexibility in the grading method for this class to enable students to enroll who are not required to take the class for their major or for a grade.
