

UMBC REVIEW

Deadline: September 12, 2015

You can publish your work!

Are you engaged in groundbreaking work in a lab, on a research paper, in a class project?

Would you like to have your work published?

Submit to the UMBC Review! Early submissions (as early as May) receive priority review and feedback.

What we are looking for:

- Exciting research results communicated in an accessible way
- A thesis that is clearly stated; an opening that provides a compelling introduction to the topic
- A conclusion that addresses the larger implications of the research
- Good writing with few punctuation, grammar, spelling, and usage errors

Your submission should be:

- A paper between 10 and 30 pages long
- In the citation style for your discipline (MLA, APA, Chicago)
- About research completed at UMBC as an undergraduate student (You may submit your paper after you graduate.)
