

Relief Programs of the New Deal: A Comparison

DIRECTIONS: Use your textbook to gather information on the New Deal relief programs listed below. Summarize how each program attempted to provide relief for Americans during the Depression in the right column of the chart. After completing the chart answer the follow-up questions.

New Deal Program	Summary
Federal Emergency Relief Administration, 1933 (FERA)
Civilian Conservation Corps, 1933 (CCC)
Civil Works Administration, 1933 (CWA)
Agricultural Adjustment Act, 1933 (AAA)
Works Progress Administration, 1935 (WPA)

Follow-up questions: (use back of paper if necessary)

1. How do the programs in the chart differ from each other in the way they try to help the American people?
2. Why would some relief programs be more popular with the American people than others?
